

Conversations about collections

We've selected 33,000 objects we don't have much information about, but we hope that people who can remember these objects from their own past can help by sharing what they know. Can you help us make our collections better by sharing your memories of these objects?

Help us explain our collections to future generations...

Conversations about collections

Can you remember this? Help us explain our collections to future generations... What would you tell a six-year old about it?

Ideas include: what did it smell like? What sounds did it make? Where did you buy it? What else do you know about it?

My grandmother used these, she...

My grandmother used these, she would decorate the top with icing that matched the colour of her favourite football team. The blue icing never tasted very nice!
